Why the UE?

During your business studies with specialisation in taxes at the University of Europe for Applied Sciences (UE) you will complete three degrees in only 4 years. In addition to your bachelor's degree, you will also be trained as a tax specialist and accountant. Along with gaining an understanding of the latest business and economic knowledge, you will also gain practical context that you can apply directly in your company.

At UE, we strengthen your personal skills, which will help you advance in your professional career and complete your profile. In addition, you will benefit from a large network of regionally market-leading law firms and excellent professors with many years of professional expertise. Our system accreditation allows us to always adapt the teaching content to the most current professional and technical requirements.

Perspectives at the UE

The Bachelor's of Science (B.Sc.) degree at UE shortens the period of practical work experience until the tax consultant exam to 3 years and the auditor exam to 4 years. At the same time, important professional foundations are laid during the course of study.

UE offers a trial course of study in which you can present a state-recognized professional degree (assistant tax consultant and certified public accountant) and a university degree (Bachelor's of Science) at the end. In cooperation with the Hager Kaufmannsschule (Iserlohn Campus) and the Berufliche Schule für Wirtschaft Hamburg Eimsbüttel (Hamburg Campus), you will learn to combine practical tasks with theory from day one, ensuring a solid start to your career.

All advantages at a glance
