In this one-year certificate program, gain the skills to start a fulfilling and in-demand career that puts people first. Learn through traditional lectures and innovation lab components, preparing you to thrive in a large range of healthcare settings or pursue further education.

Program Highlights

Get approximately 400 hours of relevant theory and approximately 300 hours of real-life, clinical training.

Benefit from innovative lab components throughout both semesters that simulate the work environment.

Use supportive approaches and evidence-based practices to promote positive and safe behaviours in clients.

Prepare to assist children, adults, and seniors with special needs or disabilities, and help them maximize life experience.

Focus on hands-on task-oriented skills and practice time.

Create, promote and maintain a safe and comfortable environment for clients and their families.

Learn to follow a plan of care based on ethical principles while maintaining sensitivity to diverse personal and family values, beliefs, cultural practices, and other needs.

Why Choose Fleming College Toronto

The program adheres to ministry guidelines, making it widely recognized by agencies and related employers.

Learn in a supportive environment that values both the theoretical and practical sides of skill development in college education.

Get access to an extensive suite of support services, such as career services, academic advising, housing and more.

Enjoy the benefits of cosmopolitan life, including a thriving job market, cultural diversity, and networking opportunities.

Class sizes that maximize personalized learning and peer interaction.
